

Claim: The fossil tooth came from a prehistoric mountain lion
Supports the claim.
Might support the claim.
Does not support the claim.

Mountain lions eat mostly small animals, such as rabbits. A	The fossil tooth was found in sandstone, which is a sedimentary rock made of layers. B
The fossil tooth is sharp. C	The fossil tooth is much flatter than a mountain lion’s tooth. D
Mountain lions have side teeth that are between 3 and 5 centimeters long. E	The fossil tooth was found in the mountains of Utah, an area where mountain lions live now. F
Mountain lions have sharp teeth. G	The fossil tooth is 5 centimeters long. H